The secret to a long life is a great start!

If there is a pet product line that can help your pet live longer and prevent unnecessary trips to the vet do you want to know about it?

Our answer is YES and that's why we feed Life's Abundance Premium Health Food for Puppies and Adult Dogs to all of our dogs. We believe that proper nutrition is vitally important to a happy, healthy, and long life.

About our first choice products ...

--Never recalled.

--Ingredients are sourced in the USA and are all from the very same sources that supply the human marketplace.

--Made in small batches and shipped directly to our homes, guaranteeing freshness and safety. Life's Abundance controls all warehousing of the pet foods, treats, and supplements.

--Contains high quality meats, grains, fruits, vegetables and a powerful antioxidant, pomegranate extract. Containing more than 50 healthful ingredients, Life's Abundance helps pets live longer, healthier lives. It's exciting that there are actual studies proving that ingredients like those in Life's Abundance do indeed actually add years to dogs' and cats lives!

--Live probiotics (friendly bacteria) are guaranteed and help our pets to have a healthy gastrointestinal tract. The GI tract has several important roles and is a prominent part of the immune system. The purity and nutrition in the food we feed our pets is so important in so many ways.

--Veterinarian formulated by a highly respected and nationally recognized veterinarian, Dr. Jane Bicks. Dr. Jane has been featured numerous times on Animal Planet, CNN, 48 hours, Discovery Channel, and Good Morning America. She's the author of three national books on pet care and nutrition, has been awarded three presidential citations, and has served on many professional Boards including the Cornell Feline Health Center and the Morris Animal Foundation. She is truly renowned among pet food industry experts.

--We can meet Dr. Jane and ask questions on her national calls which are held twice monthly. Just let me know and I'll supply you with the times and phone number.
